

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
BEFORE THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

SOUTHERN BAKERIES, LLC

and

Case 15-CA-174022

BAKERY, CONFECTIONERY, TOBACCO
WORKERS, AND GRAIN MILLERS UNION

ORDER REMANDING

On October 15, 2018, the National Labor Relations Board issued a Notice to Show Cause why this case should not be remanded for further consideration under The Boeing Co., 365 NLRB No. 154 (2017). The Respondent and the General Counsel both filed responses supporting a partial remand.<sup>1</sup>

Having duly considered the matter,

IT IS ORDERED that this proceeding is remanded to Administrative Law Judge Arthur J. Amchan for the purpose of reopening the record, if necessary, and the preparation of a supplemental decision addressing the complaint allegations affected by Boeing and setting forth credibility resolutions, findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommended Order. Copies of the supplemental decision shall be served on all parties, after which the provisions of Section 102.46 of the Board's Rules and Regulations shall be applicable.

---

<sup>1</sup> The Respondent requested that the Board limit the administrative law judge's review on remand to only the allegations concerning two work rules that he found unlawful. The General Counsel requested that the Board dismiss, instead of remand, the allegations covering three of the work rules that he represents are prima facie lawful under Boeing. The Board denies these requests and remands all seven work-rule allegations to the judge for consideration, including whether certain allegations should be dismissed.

Dated, Washington, D.C., December 7, 2018.
